

HARRINGTON WILL PASSED BY COURT

Under Terms of Instrument Admitted to Probate, Real Estate Goes to Relatives.

FRIENDS ARE ALSO REMEMBERED

Last Testament of David S. Adams Disposes of Valuable Farm in Zuma Township.

Will of the late Mrs. Anna E. Harrington of this city was admitted to probate yesterday afternoon by Judge B. S. Bell. Instrument was drawn Jan. 15, this year.

To June Landstrom and Mildred Harrington, Chicago, nieces, June is given the mahogany dining room chairs, all silverware marked "H." Japanese dishes and to Mildred is bequeathed a fur cape, buffet and china cabinet. Fred A. Harrington, Chicago, brother-in-law is left two rocking chairs; to Nettie Dindinger, friend, is given the piano; to Mrs. H. B. Hubbard, friend, is left candelabra and the sitting room table; to H. B. Hubbard, large leather chair; to Lester A. King, Corona, Cal., nephew, $200; to Mrs. Lottie Burkhardt, St. Louis, sister-in-law and James E. Woodson, Chicago, nephew, is left all of the real estate, share and share alike. Central Trust & Savings bank is named executor.

Land Disposed Of.

Under the terms of the will of David S. Adams, wealthy farmer of Zuma township, to the wife, Mary Jane Adams, is given all of the household goods and one-third of the estate of dower widow's award; to James C. Adams, son, one-sixth; to Laura Osborne, daughter, one-sixth; to Mary Taubert, daughter, one-sixth; to Samuel A. Adams, son, who is named executor, one-sixth. Will was drawn Nov. 3, 1915.

Mrs. Ella J. Mudge of this city, whose will was admitted to probate yesterday, drawn March 27, 1914, gives to Paul S. Seaver $500; to Mrs. Susan Titterton, $100; to the Central Trust & Savings bank, named as executor, the sum of $2,000 in trust for Lester D. Mudge and Janet Mudge, grandchildren; the rest of the estate is turned over to the bank, the income to go to John S. Mudge, son, and upon his death to his heirs.

By the will of John Eckerman, Moline, made Oct. 5, 1912, all of the estate is left to the wife, Mrs. Ingrid Eckerman, and after her death is to go to sons, Velle Arthur Eckerman, Vendel Arnold Eckerman and step-son Oscar Alvin Eckerman. The latter is named executor.

Mrs. Louisa Erickson, of this city, in her will made Jan. 25, this year, gives her husband Henry Erickson, the sum of $1 and leaves the residue to her children, Frank Beinke and Allie M. Smith, who are named executors.

TEARNEY LOOKS FOR EARLY SETTLEMENT

L. R. Blackman, secretary of the Moline Three-Eye baseball club, is in receipt of a message from A. R. Tearney, president of the Three-Eye league, which reads as follows:

"You can get ready for our meeting. I am satisfied that the decision is being prepared for the newspapers, and am sure that the law will be interpreted correctly."

The message is self-explanatory. It is believed here that Tearney will wire various club owners, advising them to be in Moline some day next week.

There is much work to be done and the period is approaching where the league cannot make time much longer.

Two more signed contracts have been received by the Moline club. Dick Staley, elongated guardian of the blue sack last season, has returned the club document with his signature attached. Another signed contract received is that of Harvey Cady of Galva, brother of Forrest Cady, catcher with the Boston Red Sox of the American league.

WOMAN IS HIT BY BRIDGE LINE CAR

Mrs. Myrtle Wilcox Sustains Bruises in Accident on Third Avenue, Near Twenty-second Street.

A woman who was walking diagonally across Third avenue between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets at 1 o'clock this afternoon, was struck by an east bound Bridge line street car and was badly bruised.

She gave her name as Mrs. Myrtle Wilcox to the police. Following a hasty examination by a local doctor she was taken in the police ambulance to her home at 910 Front street, Davenport. The Tri-City Railway company doctor was summoned there and attended to her injuries. It is believed that she is not seriously hurt.

MASONIC SCHOOL TO CLOSE TODAY

Meeting Tonight Will Mark End of Three-Days' State Session at the Temple in This City.

Today marks the closing of the state Masonic school of instruction, one of the five conducted each year throughout the state, at the Rock Island Masonic temple. The excellent attendance attained on the first two days of the school was maintained today and there is every indication that the record established at the Decatur school will be surpassed here, and an extra effort will be made to bring out a large attendance at the meeting tonight to accomplish this end. A candidate from Rock Island lodge will be given the third degree.

Last evening 250 were present to officially receive Grand Master R. H. Wheeler, Chicago. In the course of his remarks he explained the various new ideas which he is seeking to inculcate into the order. Oscar A. Koepf, grand orator, made an address, choosing "Unknown Heroes" as his subject.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER CONTINUES TO RISE

The stage of the water in the Mississippi at Rock Island this morning read 11:2, a rise of more than a half foot over yesterday, when 10.7 was recorded. If the warm weather and thaw continues it is expected that the ice in the river below the city will start moving, although it remains intact at this point.

NOT TO EXPERIMENT WITH LUTZ SYSTEM

City officials this afternoon decided that they would not experiment with the Lutz system of resurfacing asphalt and brick streets, as was determined upon several weeks ago. A letter from R. E. Patterson, of the Equitable Asphalt Maintenance company of Kansas City stated that he would be able to offer the work for $1.08 per square yard, which would amount to $3.12 per front foot. Officials determined that this was too costly since they could secure new paving practically as cheap. It was at first planned to try the new method on Sixth street, between Second and Fourth avenues.

SEEKS $10,000 FOR AN ALLEGED SLANDER

Alleging slander, Mrs. Eva Long of this city has filed in circuit court suit for $10,000 damages against Harold D. Nowers. H. M. McCaskrin is counsel.

She charges that the defendant made malicious statements on Jan. 1, this year, concerning her which brought her into public scandal and disgrace. The plaintiff declares she has suffered mental distress, humiliation, mortification, and loss of health, as a result of the alleged statements.

Mrs. Grace Tschoepe, Moline, has filed suit for divorce against her husband, Arthur H. Tschoepe. Statutory grounds are alleged. Plaintiff asks for her maiden name of Grace Hoan. H. M. McCaskrin is counsel.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Jury in the case of Maurice Bockert against Agnes Mills returned a verdict in county court this morning, awarding $500 commission to the plaintiff for the sale of a Hillsdale farm land for $25,000. The case was concluded about 5:30 yesterday afternoon and at 2 o'clock this morning the men finally agreed. C. S. Roberts was counsel for the plaintiff and C. D. Marshall and D. N. Simonson for the defendant.

Case of T. F. Burke against W. J. Cox is being heard before a jury in county court today. Attempt is being made by the plaintiff to collect $200 on a plumbing bill. C. S. Roberts and Judge B. S. Bell appear for Mr. Burke and J. K. Scott for the defendant.

HOTEL EMPLOYEE IS ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Accidental discharge of a revolver resulted in an injury for Martin Johnson, employee of the Arlington hotel, Moline. The accident occurred Saturday. Johnson had lived at 411 Tenth street for some time. Saturday he entered the employ of Nels Nelson, manager of the Arlington hotel. He had gone to his room at 411 Tenth street for the purpose of removing his personal effects to his new quarters at the hotel. Discharge of the gun was accomplished while he was in the act of rummaging in a drawer. The bullet entered his hand.

One Anton Melinski.

Anton Melinski was arrested by Moline police last evening near Fourth avenue and Sixth street, following a fight. Others involved left before the police arrived, but Melinski, who had evidently gotten the worst of the argument, was still there. He was assessed $2.80 in police court on a charge of disorderly conduct, the fine being glater suspended.

VanGelder Tells of Trip.

February meeting of the University club of Moline was held in the Manufacturers' hotel last evening, with 30 members of the club and their guests present. Dinner was served at 6:45. The meeting was in charge of A. E. Horst, who had secured O. F. VanGelder of this city, editor of the Modern Woodman of America, to tell the club about his experiences with the Ford peace expedition which sailed for Europe last fall.
